I just wanted to take a moment to tell you how well Nicholas read this story. We were so proud of how Nicholas read with feeling & enthusiasm. He really strived each time to read a few more words, and we rewarded him by letting him stay up a little later. We couldn't believe what a difference we saw from just 2 weeks ago. I think when he puts his mind to it, he can do so much better. The problem that we have most of the time is that we can't get him motivated enough to work hard. I thought
